

NSF-ADVANCE

Distinguished Lecturer

*Sponsored by Academic Careers in Engineering and Science (ACES)
In conjunction with the Department of Political Science and the College of Arts and Sciences*

Theda Skocpol, Ph.D.

Victor S. Thomas Professor of Government and Sociology
Dean of the Graduate School of Arts and Sciences
Harvard University

What a Mighty Power We Can Be: African American Fraternal Groups and the Struggle for Equal Rights

Thursday, October 25, 2007

4:00 pm – 5:30 pm

Ford Auditorium – Allen Memorial Medical Library
(Corner of Euclid Avenue and Adelbert Road)

With generous support from the National Science Foundation ADVANCE award, the ACES program at Case Western Reserve University seeks to contribute to the development of a national science and engineering workforce that includes the full participation women at all levels of faculty and academic leadership.

*ACES Program
(216) 368-8860*

*Email:
NSF_ACES@case.edu*

THEDA SKOCPOL is the Victor S. Thomas Professor of Government and Sociology. From 2005 to 2007, she served as Dean of the Graduate School of Arts and Sciences. From 2000 to 2006, Skocpol served as Director of the Center for American Political Studies at Harvard, expanding this center from a tiny operation within one department into a broadly interdisciplinary center supporting joint faculty projects and graduate and undergraduate research on all aspects of modern U.S. politics. Skocpol received her BA in 1969 from Michigan State University and her PhD in 1975 from Harvard University. She is a member of the American Academy of Arts and Sciences and the American Philosophical Society, and has held fellowships from the John Simon Guggenheim Foundation, the Institute for Advanced Study in Princeton, the Russell Sage Foundation, and the Robert Wood Johnson Foundation.