

Ohio Classical Conference, 2009

Hilton Garden Inn
1100 Carnegie Avenue
Cleveland, Ohio 44115

Friday, October 23rd

9:00 – 9:50 am: Council Meeting, Armington

10:00 – 11:50 am: Session I, Armington

“Interpreting and Teaching Classical Texts: Livy, Jerome, and Vergil”
Amy Sawan, Medina High School, Presiding

“Livy and Legends: Teaching Students About Reconstructing the Past” – Emelie St. Cyr, Granville High School

“An Examination of Synoptic Portions Within the Vulgate” – David L. Everson, Xavier University

“Dido and Aeneas in the Renaissance and Baroque Periods: Observations on Reception of Vergil’s Aeneid” – Timothy Wutrich, Visiting Assistant Professor of Classics, Case
Western Reserve University

“The Presence and Purpose of Humor in Aeneid Book IV,” – William Prueter, West
Geauga High School

”Teaching Vergil’s Aeneid: Integrating the Visual Evidence” – Steven L. Tuck, Assistant Professor of Classics, Miami University

12:00 – 1:45 pm: Johnson

Vergilian Society Luncheon

Steven L. Tuck, Assistant Professor of Classics, Miami University and President of the Vergilian Society, presiding

“Vergil’s Pharmacy: Venus and Pharmacology in Aeneid 12”

Julia Nelson-Hawkins
Assistant Professor of Classics
The Ohio State University

2:00 – 4:00 pm:

Session II, Armington

“Greek Literature, History, and Mythology”
Timothy Wutrich, Case Western Reserve University, Presiding

“Getting Oriented in the Iliad” – Bruce Heiden, Professor of Classics, The Ohio State University

“Hercules: Masculine and Feminine” – Jennifer Larson, Professor of Classics, Kent State University

“Menander and the Politics of Early Hellenistic Athens” – Paul Iversen, Assistant Professor of Classics, Case Western Reserve University

“Protagoras, Liberal Education, and the Skills a Citizen Needs” – James Andrews, Associate Professor of Classics, Ohio University

“(Re)considering Zeus’ Cosmos: Apollo and Hermes,” – Christopher Bungard, Assistant Professor of Classics, Butler University

5:00 – 6:00 pm:

Ohio Classical Conference Banquet Lecture, Clark

“The Cleveland Apollo and the Celebrity of Praxiteles”

Michael Bennett
Curator of Greek and Roman Art
The Cleveland Museum of Art

6:00 – 7:00 pm:

Ohio Classical Conference Reception, Executive Lounge

7:00 – 9:00 pm:

Ohio Classical Conference Banquet, Clark

Presentation of the 2009-10 Hildesheim Vase and Ohio Classical Conference College Classics Program Awards

Saturday, October 24

9:00 – 9:50 am: Business Meeting, Armington

10:00 – 11:50 am: Session III, Armington

“Topics in Latin Pedagogy”

Robert White, Shaker Heights High School, presiding

“The Use of Latin Inscriptions in the Modern Classroom” – Bryan Harvey, Associate Professor of Classics, Kent State University

“Keeping the Music in the Latin Hexameter” – William Batstone, Professor of Classics, The Ohio State University

“Successful Ingredients for a High School Latin Class” – William Prueter, West Geauga High School

“How to Make a Toga: The Study of Ancient Roman Costume,” Elizabeth Gottschalk, Classics Major, Kenyon College and Amber Scaife, Assistant Professor of Classics, Kenyon College

12:15 – 2:00 pm: Luncheon, Johnson

Panel Discussion: “The Future of Classical Studies at the Secondary and Post Secondary Level”

Sherwin Little, Indian Hill High School and President of the American Classical League

Stergios Lazos, Saint Edward High School

Adam Serfass, Assistant Professor of Classics and Chair of Classics Department, Kenyon College