

CASE

COLLEGE OF ARTS AND SCIENCES

AMIGAS

*A play for two actors based on the book
AMIGAS: LETTERS OF FRIENDSHIP AND EXILE
by Marjorie Agosin and Emma Sepulveda*

A dramatic reading
By Kristina Marich and Alexis Hayman

Directed by Gilbert Doho

Friday, December 2, 2005 • 8 p.m

Ford Auditorium in the Allen Memorial Library
(across from Severance Hall)
11000 Euclid Avenue • Cleveland

Performed in English
Free and Open to the Public

Donations to CaseDRIVE will be gratefully accepted

Reception and dialogue with the authors to follow the performance.

For information, call 216/368.8961

A dramatic work based on the 30-year correspondence between the Chilean poets and human rights activists, Emma Sepulveda and Marjorie Agosin.

CaseDRIVE, the Dominican Republic Initiative for Volunteer Experiences, is a collaborative effort of nearly all the university's colleges to provide service-learning opportunities for students in the country. Information about CaseDRIVE is available at: <http://home.cwru.edu/~mlt17/#>

Visitor Parking Garages:

Severance Hall – East Blvd • Veale Center – Adelbert Rd • Rainbow Babies & Children's – Adelbert Rd • University Hospitals – Cornell Rd

Co-sponsored by the Women's Studies Program, the Flora Stone Mather Center for Women, the Ethnic Studies Program, and the Presidential Initiative Fund for the Enhancement of the Humanities

CASE WESTERN RESERVE UNIVERSITY