

Research at the
Interface of the
Biological and
Mathematical
Sciences

CASE WESTERN RESERVE
UNIVERSITY EST. 1826

Application for the 2008-9 Undergraduate Program in:
Research at the Interface of the Mathematical and Biological Science

This Program is funded by a Training Grant from the National Science Foundation.

Applicant Name:

Present Address:

Street

City, State & ZIP

Permanent Address:

Street

City, State & ZIP

Case network ID: Other e-mail (if preferred):
--

Campus / Current Telephone:

Permanent Telephone:

---

Will University Housing be required during the summer internship?

YES ___ NO ___

Date of Birth:

Female ___ Male ___

(NSF funding is available for U.S. Citizens and Permanent Residents only)

U.S. Citizen or Permanent Resident: YES ___ NO ___

Case Western Reserve University seeks to include students from diverse backgrounds. The information requested below will be used to evaluate the effectiveness of our efforts to recruit and select a diverse body of participants. This information is CONFIDENTIAL and COMPLETELY VOLUNTARY.

Please indicate the group(s) in which you would include yourself.

Pacific Islander                       Native Alaskan
 Native American                       African American                       Caucasian
 Asian                                       Latino/a or Hispanic                       Other (Please specify.)

What is your major concentration?

What is your current GPA?

What is your academic status? ___ So                      ___ Jr. Expected graduation date: _____

If accepted into the RIBMS program, can you commit to working full time for summer 2008 and continuing your research in the following academic year either as your senior capstone or by enrolling in a research-for-credit course (e.g. BIOL 388/390 or similar) for a minimum of two credit hours per semester?

YES ___ NO ___

What is your career objective?

Please describe any prior research experience or skills relevant to participation in the RIBM program:

