

CASE

COLLEGE OF ARTS AND SCIENCES

College Scholars Program

Student Works in Progress Presentations

Friday, January 27, 2006

12:30- 2:00 pm

Clark Hall, Room 206

11130 Bellflower Road

Cleveland

Free and open to the public

Sponsored by the College Scholars Program, the College of Arts and Sciences and the Office of the Provost
CASE WESTERN RESERVE UNIVERSITY

You are Cordially invited to attend

College Scholars Program
Student Works-in-Progress Presentations
January 27, 2006 12:30- 2:00 pm
Clark Hall Room 206

CASE

COLLEGE OF ARTS AND SCIENCES

THE COLLEGE SCHOLARS PROGRAM is an undergraduate community of learners. The program emphasizes interdisciplinary learning and the moral demands of leadership, both at Case and beyond. For more information visit www.case.edu/artsci/scholars/

Case Western Reserve University
College Scholars Program
Clark Hall, Room 206
Cleveland, OH 44106-7120
www.case.edu/artsci/scholars/

STUDENT PRESENTATIONS

James Carlson (History and Economics major) will bring 2-3 local high school bands together to celebrate their musical achievements and the importance of music in their communities.

Nathan Cross (Biomedical Engineering major with a minor in Chemistry) is designing a guidebook on the Madagascar environment for the Cleveland Botanical Gardens.

Calvin Krishen (Systems and Controls Engineering major) is researching advances in neuropharmacological medications over the last 30 years and their effect on how we view emotions and behaviors.

Erika Lindholm (Biomedical Engineering major) is creating an informational booklet about overseas volunteer opportunities for engineers.

Remy Olson (Biology & Economics major with a minor in Chemistry) is partnering with the Greater Cleveland Lead Advisory Council on a survey of health providers and implementation of a quicker blood lead level test.

Rachel Pope (Medical Arthropology major) is training to become a Doula (birth assistant) and organizing a public informational panel and film showing on the subject.

Jonathan Semivan (Psychology and History major with a minor in Spanish) is writing a collection of short stories, including "Isis" from Scholars House magazine.

For more information, call 216-368-8961
Brown Bag lunch (beverages will be provided)
Visitor Parking: Severance Hall (entrance on East Boulevard)