

Cultural and Linguistic Competency: Implications for Research

A half-day symposium exploring techniques for designing research projects sensitive to the cultural dynamics of your patient population.

Guest Speaker and Facilitator

Tawara Goode, M.A.

Assistant Professor & Director, National Center for Cultural Competence
Georgetown University Center for Child and Human Development
Department of Pediatrics, Georgetown University Medical Center

May 19, 2008

Wolstein Conference Center
Case Western Reserve University

AGENDA

8:00 - 9:30 am	Cultural and Linguistic Competency-Conceptual Frameworks
9:30 - 11:30 am	Workshops
	1) Recruitment Diverse Populations
	2) Incorporating Culturally Competent Approaches in Methodology
11:45-1:00 pm	Lunch
	Critique of Local Research Programs

Please RSVP to Michele Abraham at (216) 778-3858 or mabraham@metrohealth.org
NO LATER THAN MAY 12, 2008

SPONSORED BY:

