

Using GIS for Planning

Mike Lyons
Mayor
Richfield Village

Land use proposals in Richfield Village view Geographic Information System map making as a tool that is integral in the planning process. The role of mapping and the technology available for that purpose poses challenges in meeting the objectives that advance community planning.