VOICES AND VISIONS FOR OUR HEALING

Christine Branche, Chairperson

A panel of community and academic leaders offers brief personal comments about priorities for health care in Cleveland and the region, followed by interaction with the audience and other speakers. Christine Branche, as a representative of the local and national Alzheimer Associations, will lead off with the viewpoint of the affected person and family. Experts in urban health will address community and environmental health issues. Perspectives will range from the philosophy of health care to the practical and political issues surrounding the development of health care systems.
