

Program Outcomes

1. 90% of interns will complete the UHCMC Dietetic Internship Program.
2. 80% of graduates will pass the registered dietitian examination on the first attempt.
3. 95% of interns will earn a Master's degree from CWRU.
4. 95% of interns will complete research project.
5. 95% of interns will rate themselves as adequately prepared to conduct research.
6. Annually, the program will offer a minimum of 12 professional education programs for interns and preceptors.
7. 90% of graduates who respond to survey will indicate satisfactory or higher as their perceived level of skill as an entry-level dietitian.
8. Within 12 months of completing the program, 60% of graduates will have obtained employment and/or enrolled in additional degree of higher learning.
9. 100% of employers who respond to survey will rate graduates' performance as average or above for entry level.

In the past 5 years, all program outcomes have exceeded target measures.