CLARK HALL

Clark Hall is the second-oldest building on campus and the first for the College of Women, the companion school for Adelbert College. The Gothic-style brick building, dedicated in 1892, was designed by Richard Morris Hunt, a New York architect who also designed the facade of the Metropolitan Museum of Art and the base of the Statue of Liberty. The building was a gift from Elisabeth Clark. Clark Hall was rededicated in 1999 after receiving a 3.7 million dollar facelift thanks to the generosity of Eric and Jane Nord and several anonymous donors.
