

President's Award for Staff Excellence

President Gregory L. Eastwood invites you to nominate a non-faculty Case staff member for the President's Award for Staff Excellence. This annual award honors up to three staff members whose outstanding contributions to our campus culture have a transformational effect on university colleagues, students, or visitors with whom they come into contact.

Nominations may come from any university staff, student, or faculty member. The Staff Recognition Committee of the Case Staff Advisory Council will review nomination materials received from throughout the University, select outstanding candidates, and forward the names of those individuals (along with relevant biographical information) to the Office of the President. The honorees will each receive a $1,000 cash award; their names will be engraved on a plaque that is currently on display in Tomlinson Gallery. The recipients will be recognized at the Staff Service Awards Luncheon in June.

1. Nominee must be a permanent, non-faculty staff member with a minimum of five years of university service.
2. Nominee must exhibit qualities that are consistent with a university striving to create a powerful learning environment that has a transformational impact on all who teach, learn, discover, and work here so they are prepared and engaged to serve society.
