

Questions about your Corporate Express order?

Once the originator's order has been transferred to the warehouse they will receive the order number from Corporate Express via email. This number will begin with a 9. You can see this number by looking on the packing slip, or on the description of your reports.

You can call Corporate Express if you have further questions about your order.