

In a survey of 1 million high school seniors about their ability to get along with others:

- all thought they were above average,
- 60% thought they were in the top 10%, and
- 25% thought they were in the top 1%.

(College Board (1976-1977) Student descriptive questionnaire. Princeton, NJ: Educational Testing Service, quoted in How We Know What Isn't So, by Thomas Gilovich, Free Press, NY, 1991, p77)