

Notes from LGBT Meeting
May 25, 2005
Adelbert 352

Attendance: Sarah Andrews, Vicki Cleveland, Jane Daroff, Donald Feke, Marty Gibbons, Kathryn Karipides, Sue Nickel-Schindewolf, Patricia Princehouse, Lynn Singer, Jillian Woldorf

Metro Cleveland Event (Eric Lutzo, President)
Scheduled on June 14, 2005 in Dively Building
The Provost is sponsoring the event. Erin Walsh will set up the event.
There will be a cash bar. Opa will furnish the hors d'oeuvres.

Gay Pride Parade is scheduled on Saturday, June 18, at 1:00 p.m. Assembly time is 11:30 a.m. in front of Trinity Cathedral. The parade will be followed by an event at Voinovich Park at 1:00. Marty Gibbons will organize the Case contingent.

Marty Gibbons reported that FASE will meet beginning in August, 2005. Marty Gibbons and Victor Groza will chair this term; and Anne Duli and Jerry Floersch will chair the following term. The terms will be for two years.

Kathy Karipides will be in charge of New Faculty Orientation this fall. Attendance by new faculty is mandatory. LGBT issues to be introduced:

- workshops offered
- leadership training offered
- general scholarship issues
- coordinate with schools

ACES – discussed the use of interactive theater at Case. Carnegie Mellon and University of Michigan have resident acting troupes to deal with diversity issues.

Faculty Senate should be involved. Think about charge to committee and approach the Committee on Minority Affairs. Lynn Singer will work with John Anderson and the two committees about incorporating LGBT issues.

New brochure should be designed and ready to distribute this Fall advertising LGBT initiatives listing FASE, Spectrum, the LGBT website, and networking resources and using the “Share the Vision” logo. Marty Gibbons will work with Don Feke to develop a brochure.

Sue Nickel-Schindewolf reported that she is working on an agenda for a subcommittee in University Housing and a brochure regarding sexual misconduct, hate speech, etc. Dorothy Miller chairs this committee and will represent this group.

Jillian Woldorf announced that she is leaving to move to California. Thanks Jillian for your leadership of the graduate students on the committee! We wish you the best!