

October 3, 2004
Student Democrat leaders and debaters information
Cleveland, OH (Case Western Reserve University)

Contact: Press Secretary for Student Democrats Marquis Harrison
585-764-4522
Mrharrison04@msn.com

Chairperson: Tim Lim (Riverside, CA) 19, is a junior majoring in industrial and labor relations at Cornell University. Lim is the current president of the Cornell College Democrats, and the national membership director of College Democrats of America. Lim aspires to make a career in public service and help labor movements.

Party Secretary: Skylar Zwick (Sarasota, FL) 21, is a senior, double majoring in communications and psychology at the University of Miami. Zwick is a member of the NCAA, President of the local Delta Sigma Rho-Tau Kappa Alpha National Debate Honor Society, Vice President of Delta Phi Epsilon sorority, Vice President of Gamma Sigma Rho Honor Society. She is also an intern for U.S. Senator Bill Nelson's office. She aspires to get a masters in Broadcast Journalism and eventually become an anchor for a major television network.

Press Secretary: Marquis Harrison (Bronx, NY) 18, is sophomore with a double major in political science and African American studies at the University of Rochester. At school, he is the educational and political science chairperson of the Black Students' Union, and a member of the debate team. He aspires to become a political analyst and eventually become a member of the House of Representative.

Sarah David (Pikesville, MD) 19, is representing Democrats in the debate on National Security. David is a sophomore at John Hopkins University. She is majoring in Political Science with a minor in Arabic. David also serves as an undergraduate fellow for the foundation for the Defense of Democracy studying counter terrorism. On her campus, she serves as the public relations chairperson of the College Democrats, and as member of the mock trial team. David aspires to have a career in law and intelligence.

Latoya Edwards (West Palm Beach FL) 19, will represent Democrats on domestic issues in the debate. Edwards is a junior majoring in journalism and political science at the University of Florida. She has participated in competitive forensics for seven years including student congress, and extemporaneous debate. Edwards hopes to eventually practice law in the South Florida.

Adam Hosmer-Henner (Reno, NV) 21, will debate on the economy. He is a senior double majoring in economics and public policy studies at Duke University. His undergraduate research focuses on international development and poverty reduction strategies. Adam also, is a member of the parliamentary debate team at Duke. He aspires to practice law in the future.

Max Miller (Ankeny, IA) 22, will represent Democrats on social issues. Miller is a senior majoring in English and history at the University of Florida. Miller is a Truman scholar, the executive director of the emerging leaders conference at the University of Florida, and he is the founder and president of the Gainesville Chapter of Americans United for Separation of Church and State. He aspires to pursue graduate studies in the United Kingdom.